1 Read what the three teenagers are saying about housework. Match the teenagers with the pictures (a–f).

Courtney

My Mum always tells me off because I don't clean my bedroom. It's true, my bedroom is a mess – but I like it like that. I know where everything is.

Sometimes Mum comes in with a black rubbish bag, and she picks up everything that is on the floor and puts it inside the bag. She then puts it on my bed.

Mum says I'm lazy, but I do the washing-up every night. I don't mind. I just don't want to tidy my room.

Michael

I'm a 12-year-old boy and I am very tidy. I always make my bed in the mornings and I keep my room clean and tidy.

That is why my younger brother really annoys me. He never puts anything back! For example, when he 'borrows' one of my CDs he always leaves it in the machine or on the table. He never puts it back in the box. I go shopping for my Mum and Dad, but my brother doesn't have to help me, because he's the youngest. It isn't fair!

Lila

I'm 13 and I have one brother. He's 16, and he's really lazy. He never does any housework. I always try to help my Mum and Dad. Sometimes I do the cooking and I do my own ironing. My brother does nothing.

The problem is my parents never ask him to do anything. For example, I had to help with the washing-up last night. What did my brother do? He went up to his room 'to study'. I think he'll make a terrible husband.

1 Read the article and complete the table with information about Ben and yourself.

14-year-old Ben Shaffron is an ordinary teenage boy. He loves playing football, watching TV and playing computer games. He doesn't like eating vegetables or doing housework.

But in other ways, Ben is very unusual. He already has seven GCSEs. (Most students do these exams when they are 16.) Ben is also a chess champion.

'Most of the time, I don't feel different from other boys' says Ben, 'but sometimes it's difficult. I hate it when my friends phone and ask me to go out, but I am doing revision or practising my chess.'

Ben gets up at seven o'clock and has breakfast. At eight o'clock, his Mum drives him and his sister Abi to school. Abi is 16, but sometimes Ben is in her class.

Ben finishes school at lunchtime and goes home. Then a special tutor comes to the house to teach him. The tutor leaves at four o'clock. Ben starts his homework at six o'clock and usually works for two or three hours.

So, what's it like having a genius in the family? 'I'm proud of my brother' says Abi, 'but I hate it when he's in my class. It's embarrassing! Sometimes I'm jealous of Ben because he doesn't go to school in the afternoon. But he works harder than me. I watch more TV and see my friends more often.'

Ben	Me
In the morning, he gets up, has breakfast and goes to school.	In the morning, I _____
At lunchtime <sup>1</sup> _____	At lunchtime _____
In the afternoon <sup>2</sup> _____	In the afternoon _____
In the evening <sup>3</sup> _____	In the evening _____

- 5 Ben goes to school with his sister.
- 6 He doesn't see his sister at school.

3 Is your life the same as Ben's? How is it the same and how is it different?
